

The Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality Residential Fellowship Competition

Deadline: Friday, April 4, 2014, 5:00 PM

For 2013-14, the Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality will offer up to four Residential Fellowships in gender and/or sexuality studies.

Eligibility: University of Chicago PhD candidates from all disciplines are encouraged to apply. This fellowship provides a research fund of $1,000 along with shared office space at the Center. Recipients of the fellowship are expected to participate in and present at the Gender and Sexuality Studies Workshop and to attend CSGS events as well as participate in the intellectual life of the center as a whole.

Application Process: The application should include a completed Residential Fellowship Application, the student's current CV, a statement of purpose (cover letter describing your work in relation to your general intellectual preparation, commitments, etc.), and a description of the dissertation (1-2 paragraphs). These materials should be submitted as PDFs by email to CSGSfellowshipapplications@lists.uchicago.edu. This is a secure, dedicated site for CSGS applications.

Applicants should also arrange to have one letter of recommendation submitted, also by email to CSGSfellowshipapplications@lists.uchicago.edu.

The deadline for submission is Friday, April 4, 2014, 5:00 PM. Early applications are welcome. Please contact Student Affairs Administrator Sarah Tuohey (stuohey@uchicago.edu) with any questions.
