

Co-Teaching Problems in the Study of Gender/Sexuality 2015-16

Deadline: Friday, April 3

Email materials to stuohey@uchicago.edu

We are seeking co-teachers for “Problems in the Study of Gender” and “Problems in the Study of Sexuality” courses to be offered in 2015-16.

Applicants may be from any University of Chicago doctoral program and should have strong backgrounds in gender studies. They must have passed their preliminary exams (or the equivalent) by October 1, 2015. Candidates on the short list will be interviewed by Gender and Sexuality Studies faculty after applications are submitted. Interviews will focus on the teaching statement. Interviews are obligatory; if you will be out of town we can arrange for a phone or Skype interview.

Application materials should be emailed as a single PDF to stuohey@uchicago.edu:

- Cover letter (addressing qualification to teach the course)
- Application form (this sheet)
- Curriculum vitae
- Teaching statement

and

- One letter of recommendation from a faculty member should be emailed to stuohey@uchicago.edu

Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality
GNSE 10100 – Problems in the Study of Gender Co-Teaching Application, 2015-16

Application Deadline: Friday, April 3, 2015, 12:00 noon

Please email to: Sarah Tuohey
stuohey@uchicago.edu
773-702-2365

Course(s) applied for:

- Autumn Quarter Problems
- Winter Quarter Problems
- Spring Quarter Problems i
- Any (successful applicants will be offered only one course)

Name: _____

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

Phone: _____ UCID: _____

Academic Information

Department: _____

Dissertation Committee: _____

Application Checklist:

- Please email the following to Sarah Tuohey at stuohey@uchicago.edu
- Application form (this sheet)
- Curriculum vitae
- Teaching statement

- One letter of recommendation from a faculty member should be emailed to stuohey@uchicago.edu

Name of recommender _____